“I Need a Suitable Helper...”

“The Lord God said, it is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable helper for him.”

Genesis 2:18

I believe every word of 1 Corinthians 13 (The Love Passage) that Paul wrote to the Corinthians. It gives us an exact list of ways we need to be loving our neighbors, not just significant others. But in Chapter 14:34, Paul brings up one thing I disagree with him on, it reads “Women should remain silent in the churches. They are not allowed to speak, but must be in submission, as the law says. If they want to inquire about something, they should ask their own husbands at home, for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church.”

Just because I disagree with Paul here, doesn't mean what I read earlier isn't true. Paul was a human too, he didn't interpret everything right, just like I won't either.

But I do know that I need his leading in my journey, even though I disagree with him. I can't just rip all his words out of the bible 'cause these two verses and whatever else I don't think is right. Just like in life, I can't shun my brother just because he did something I don't agree with, I can't shun my cousin from my life who interprets God differently than I do. If I would start shunning people out, then I'd be standing alone in a woods, by myself. And that's not biblical.

Genesis 2:18 tells us that at creation, we were meant to work together and be in community with each other. God made wild animals and all the birds in the sky and Adam got to name them all the livestock, the birds and the wild animals. But a suitable helper could not be found in any of them.

So, God made a woman for the man to partner with and work together to care for his Kingdom. God doesn't make mistakes. He continues to enhance his creation with each one of us. There's a lot of humans in this world and if I'm being completely honest, I don't agree with most of them. I don't even agree with everyone in Arthur or in my own family! We experience life differently because of our uniquely crafted personalities and passions and gifts so our perspective is different and that will not change no matter how old we get, I'm told it just gets more different. So what can we do to cope with these differences?

Well, first off, flip open your bible to 1 Corinthians 13 and exchange the word “love” with your name, so it will read “Ashley is patient, Ashley is kind....” Every time I read that, I am reminded that I've got some work to do on how I'm loving my neighbor.

God created us to help each other, despite our differences. And if God created you, you are breathing and He decrees that you are made on purpose and for a purpose. If you hear anything different, you are listening to the wrong voice.

So, what's my job? What's your job? To be a suitable helper in caring for the earth and all living creatures in it until God calls you home. Time to get to work!
